

Name: Marion Henselwood

Tell us about yourself: I have recently retired from the financial services sector after 47 years. I am married with 2 grown children. I enjoy spending time on the gold course and exploring the Okanagan outdoors with my German Shepherd Diesel. I currently am a Director with the COHA Foundation.

What year did you dance? 2014

What was your style of dance? Hip Hop

What was your connection to COHA at that time? President of the Board

What is your favourite memory from your performance? I have two from my performance. Walking out onto the dance floor waiting for our music to start, and when we began the audience's energy was amazing. The nerves were gone and we just had fun. The second memory was when our names were called for Judge's Choice. I can still feel those emotions today.

Are you still dancing today? Unfortunately not.

What backstage moments stand out to you today? The interaction and camaraderie of all the dancers.

Has this experience inspired you to do other life changing things? While I haven't done anything life changing yet, it did show me that it's okay to step out of your comfort zone. With my recent retirement earlier this year, I'm sure this transition will lead to new adventures that I'm looking forward to.

Is there anything else you'd like to share? This was one of the most challenging and rewarding things I have ever done.
